BIOGRAPHY

Real Name: Humberto "Berto" Lopez

Height: 5'7" Weight: 142 lbs. Gender: Male

Eyes: Blue Hair: Black Size: Average

Distinguishing Features: Dinosaur tail and limbs (when using powers)

Occupation: Adventurer

Origin: High Tech: Pym Particles, Magic

Teams: Avengers Academy

Base: Los Angeles

HISTORY

While out at a dig site with his paleontologist parents, Humberto Lopez stumbled upon a mystical fossilized amulet that gave him the power to shape-shift into prehistoric creatures, particularly dinosaurs. As a lifelong fan of super heroes, he leaped at this opportunity to become a hero himself, adopting the codename Reptil.

Shortly after Reptil began adventuring, his parents mysteriously disappeared. While he continued to search for them, he joined the Avengers Academy and became good friends with many of his fellow students. Although the academy is no more, he continues to do his best to help those in need.

PERSONALITY

Reptil loves adventure, but he fears his own powers as much as he appreciates them. His reptilian transformations can occasionally send him into a berserker state, where he has little more reasoning power than a T. rex. He fears the possibility of accidentally lashing out at those closest to him.
